

Driving Tour Planning Notes

Pre-event planning

- Submit event title, date(s), and location to Vice President for inclusion on Planning Calendar (location typically is destination, but not necessarily so)
- Determine event details: Start location, meeting/leaving time; end location, driving route
- Determine costs (e.g., lunch, entrance fees); pre-paid or paid by attendees at destination?
- Provide information for event publication
 - Website
 - Promo of the event, summary of driving route, photo(s), restaurant info, etc.
 - Include meeting location (with specific address) and time (when you want all cars in place; not leaving time), and registration deadline date
 - Submit to webmaster@az.pca.org
 - Registration page on MotorsportReg.com
 - Indicate maximum attendance cap, registration deadline, cost per person, and any other information required to set up registration for the event
 - Submit to registrar@az.pca.org
 - Promotional "ad" in Going Places
 - Can be a flyer or a document in Word format
 - Not necessary to include all details; a link to the website event page with those details will be included when the event promo is published in GP
- Develop driving directions
 - Start/end locations/addresses
 - Turn-by-turn directions
 - Planned stops; include addresses, to help participants to re-join the group should they get off track
 - Mileage between stops and cumulative mileage at each direction
 - Cell phone# for lead car(s) and sweep car(s)
- Perform a test run of route (if practical); amend driving directions as necessary
- Submit information to Vice President for PCA insurance application (Certificate of Insurance, or COI), at least 30 days in advance of event date
 - Starting point location/address
 - Ending point location/address
 - Estimated number of cars and attendees

Event Day

- Ensure COI is in tour leader's possession (COI should be received from Vice President well in advance of the event date)
- Get everyone to sign waiver (note: forms must be printed in color)
 - All attendees must sign waiver form — driver AND passenger(s)
 - Separate waiver form for minors (parent/guardian signs form for minor)
- Car staging
 - Control car placement to make it easy to identify who is in which drive group
 - Normally, cars are not assigned to drive groups ahead of time
- Drivers Meeting
 - Commence meeting about 30 minutes before scheduled leaving time for each drive group
 - About 10 minutes before meeting time, announce time when drivers meeting will commence
 - Encourage people to use the restroom well before the meeting time
 - See "Driving Tour Leader Notes" document for detailed drivers meeting notes
 - Schedule drive group departures from staging area approximately 15 minutes apart

After event

- Submit PCA Post Event Report within 5 business days after the event (Tour leader)
Note: you must be logged on to your PCA account to access the form
- Solicit an attendee to submit PCA Observer Report (not tour organizer; submitter must be logged on to their PCA account to access the form)
- Deliver signed waiver sheets to club Secretary for filing (retention 4 yrs, 1 month)
 - Send a request to the club photo site moderators (photos@az.pca.org) to have a gallery set up for participants to upload event photos
 - When you get the link from the moderator, send a request to registrar@az.pca.org to have the link forwarded to the event participants
