Born to compete.
Even with ourselves.

The form varies. But the racing bloodlines, the undying dedication to pure sports car performance, the marriage of power and efficiency embodied in the Porsche principles, do not. And that truth is revealed in that moment you turn the key. Discover it for yourself with a test drive. Porsche. There is no substitute.

Experience every form of Porsche performance.

Here we are in a new year and 2016 seems to have gone by in a flash. There are so many memories and great times to reflect on as we transition to 2017.

I want to thank you for the trust you have placed in me as your new president. Our past President, Rook Younger, has set high standards and I will strive to uphold them.

During my tenure as Membership Chair, I was fortunate to work with our Board of Directors and look forward to continuing to do so in 2017.

Your 2017 AZPCA Board of Directors:
- Lyle Capstick, Vice President
- Jan Nyquist, Secretary
- Bob Woodwell, Treasurer
- Rook Younger, Past President
- Chuck Brasile, Director
- Bob Tomlin, Director and Advertising/Sponsorship Chair
- Gary Solem, Director
- Jason Bunting, Director and Membership Chair

Richard Bookspan has elected to step down as a Director at Large. He has been an excellent resource during his tenure; his demeanor and insight has been an asset and he will be missed.

Summer of 2016 Denise Brasile stepped down as Going Places Editor after many years of hard work. Please join me in thanking Denise for all her hard work.

Angela Manente has stepped into the Going Places Editor position and performs an outstanding job with each issue.

Last, but not least. Debbie Younger has been very active behind the scenes performing tasks at numerous club venues. These actions are appreciated and often go unrecognized.

The next time you see any of our Executive Appointee Chairs, Coordinators or one of the above individuals, I would encourage you to take a moment and thank them for their efforts.

Our goal in AZPCA is to provide our members with the type of activities that you are most interested in. If you have ideas for new or different events share your thoughts with any of the board members.

Please take the opportunity to volunteer for different events or positions as they become available during the year.

Did you know AZPCA has a mentoring program? We do, many of our new members request a mentor when initially joining the club, often the questions are general in nature, where do you get your car serviced, how do I sign up for events, etc. We are always looking for additional mentors, please contact Jason Bunting our Membership Chair and let him know you would like to help out as a mentor.

Volunteers fuel AZPCA and our continued success depends upon member involvement.

If you have not renewed your AZPCA Membership for 2017 now is the time to do so, otherwise your subscription to Going Places will be interrupted. On the AZPCA website home click on Membership, scroll down the page and click on Join Today! Follow the prompts and fill out the form.

Whether you enjoy social, driving or competition events, multiple activities are on the calendar each month. We are an active club year round. So, direct your browser to http://az.pca.org and look under Events then Calendar. From the calendar you may click on the link to sign up for events.

If National events are of interest, this spring Treffen will be held in Austin, Texas followed by Porsche Parade in Spokane, Washington.

Come on out and join us, see you soon.

EDITOR

Angela Manente

Hope you all had a wonderful holiday season and received all the presents you wished for! If not, check out the list of gift ideas on page 26 from “Pepper Girl.” I know, the article is a little late, but you can always treat yourself or maybe you have an anniversary or birthday coming up soon.

As promised, there are more Flight 39 pictures and article this month. It was a wonderful event and raised over $3,500 for the Disabled Veterans Department of Arizona. Thank you for all the sponsors that donated items for the silent auction, goodie bags and their participation.

I would also like to send a special shout-out to some of our loyal, long time members celebrating AZPCA anniversaries this month:

- 51 Years
  Phil Mullen and Sue Smith
- 41 Years
  Cliff and Carolyn Berryman
- 36 Years
  Jack and Loretta Aman
- 31 Years
  Paul Besonday and Lynette Washburn

The winner of the Writer’s Drawing for the December issue of Going Places is Kevin Gilchrist for his tech article, Porsche Classic Radio Navigation System Install. He will receive a complimentary dinner at a future monthly meeting.

Please keep those articles and photos coming my way. When you attend an event, consider writing a short story of your experience.

There are many events planned for the next few months. Sign up on our AZPCA website at: az.pca.org

Hey Autocrossers,

Here are the results from Sunday’s event on October 30th.

The chart below is all raw times, so add 2 seconds for each cone hit.

Congratulations to Dale for setting the Top Time Of Day, narrowly eclipsing Dennis with a spectacular run.

It was a fun course designed by Kim, with beautiful weather in the morning - although it got downright hot by mid-day!

Thanks to everyone who helped throughout the day with set-up, work stations, tear down and returning equipment to the trailer.

We look forward to seeing everyone again on December 4th at Wild Horse Pass Motorsports Park!

We’re into the new year…did you make a resolution to learn something new on your phone or PC?

Well I vowed to:

1. Clean up my email (I have 70K+ emails).
2. Organize my photos/videos better (my iPhone alone has 9,640…and that’s just from the last year!).
3. Clean up my apps on my iPhone (902 and counting).
4. Take some new techy classes at the Apple Store/online.
5. Continue to investigate new features/capabilities to reach more Porsche lovers using our 7 AZPCA Social Media apps.
6. Relook at all my Porsche/Driving Apps and integrate more with our GoPro camera for driving tours, DEs and AXs!

Our two new puppy acquisitions has put a small damper on travel and all-day car events, but soon we’ll be back in full force, enjoying our new Porsches we purchased in 2016. TrackAddict App here I come!

Where do you start? For a quick start, look at the top of az.pca.org and click on any of the seven social media icons! As I always remind people at the monthly meetings, to be engaged with social media, you should really have a Smart Phone (iPhone or Android device). You can interact from your PC, but its just not the same as fast info at your fingertips 24/7. A really cool picture or video deserves to be shared in real-time! Besides, my iPhone is really my computer now, I rarely fire up my old laptop unless I do slides or this file for Going Places.

Download these seven apps, or at least the first three, set yourself up with an account, then search for AZPCA! Experiment, ask friends if you have questions, ask me at AZPCA events. Like, follow, friend, post, retweet, tag, share, hashtag, pin, …If I sound like I’m talking a foreign language…maybe THAT’S your resolution for 2017! Learn the Social Media Language! Whenever you ask me something, I always learn something too! #WhereCanYourPorscheTakeYou
Phoenix Flight 39 kicked off Friday, the 29th of October, with cocktails and a buffet sponsored by Porsche North Scottsdale. With attendance in excess of 200 people, we enjoyed great food, great weather and some fantastic cars at Isabella’s Kitchen in North Scottsdale.

Saturday morning came altogether too soon for me, Carolyn, and our lovely house guests from the Rocky Mountain Region, Jan and Bob Scott. They have assisted me for the last 40 years at various Porsche Parades and Concours. Friends for life!!!

When cars started to arrive, by 6:30 am, we had signs placed, registration set up in our 1959 VW Crew Cab and coffee brewing. Breakfast soon followed sponsored by Porsche of Chandler. They also were responsible for the event t-shirts and Goody bags.

We placed about 150 cars, with 30 on the grass. We had cars from 1952 - 2017, from Speedsters to a Carrera GT, and 959’s to 917’s.

Ray Ramirez, Kevin Gilchrist, our webmaster, and his son provided us parking assistance. We also had some personal friends help us well.

Rook, Debbie, Jan and Carolyn helped with check-in, which went smoothly with very little waiting.

Thanks to Porsche North Scottsdale for displaying some new cars and a Goody store. Special thanks to Mike Rothery for providing the lunch buffet.

Jack Aman and his crew, with new judge coats, provided by Time For Sale Aviation Detailing, started promptly at 10:00 am and finished by lunchtime. Our Zone 8 Representative, Dave Witteried and his wife, also helped with judging.

The Goody bags by Porsche of Chandler were given out to all with gifts by Sports Car Market, Hagerty, Where Magazine, Coker Tire, Griots, Discount Tire, Auto Magic and cookies and candies (from Time For Sale).

We had several VIP guest in attendance as well, such as Arie Luyendyk, Indy 500 winner 1990 and 1997. Mike Reno, founder and frontman of Loverboy, an avid Porsche collector with a 1957 Carrera GS Speedster. Masha Pasichnyk, internationally renowned artist commissioned a portrait on site for our silent auction that evening. She also was responsible for our Flight 39 logo.

Our good friend KC, owner of Sewickley Porsche in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, enjoyed the weekend as well. An avid collector and race car driver, equipped with a 1974 IROC.
Saturday evening started with a cocktail hour at the Fairway House at Greyhawk. Rook introduced Dave Witteried and his wife along with two representatives from the Disabled American Veterans, Bob DiGirolamo and Ron Cox. The proceeds from our silent auction and raffle tickets were donated to the Disabled American Veterans Department of Arizona.

The silent auction, of over 30 items were displayed by Denise Brasile. The total amount of donated items were valued at over $6000.00. It ranged from airplane rides to race car instruction.

Jack and Loretta Aman, Jim Roberts and Ray Ramirez gave out more than 40 trophies. The results will soon be posted.

Thank you so much for our sponsors who had displays on Vendor Row, including Bull Dog Detailing.

Thank you Lauren, Brian, and Nate, who made our visit very special. We'll be back!

I personally would like to thank the board for allowing me the opportunity to give back to a club that I have belonged to for 50 years.

Cheers!

I remember when Autoweek was still a weekly, and it was called Competition Press and AutoWeek. It was printed on newsprint. I’m not ashamed of that. But I much prefer to look forward, to the New Year and beyond.

And so I did recently, when I found in my virtual in-box a one-off special insert from Autoweek’s parent, Automotive News. The insert was all about something called Automobility LA. Apparently this was a four-day trade show for the “new” auto industry, celebrating “the intersection of technology and the automobile….”

I dived in; in-depth promotion of the talk-fest, timed to precede the annual LA Car Show, with representation from… yes indeed, Porsche. As well as Ford, Amazon, IBM Watson, Mercedes-Benz, Facebook and more.

No, I didn’t read the whole insert. And I didn’t print it out either. I mean, it ran to 50+ pages. But I did discern some highlights that I’m honored to share with you, dear reader. You can thank me now or thank me later.

The keynoter was Padmasree Warrior, U.S. CEO of Beijing-based EV start-up NextEV. That’s Beijing as in China. She had previously been a global marketer with Motorola and Cisco Systems. In advance of her podium remarks, she sat down with Automotive News for a Q & A.

“We are focused on the mobility experience versus just the car,” she says in the interview. “We say we are designing the product and platform strategy from the user end rather than the wheels out…. I think of the car as the smartest device people will own in the future.

“Three big trends will disrupt the auto industry. First is the shift from the internal combustion engine to the EV. Second, the shift from the car being just a device to an experience. Third, the shift from ownership to ride sharing.

“Cars will continue to be aspirational products. There will continue to be ownership, because cars are the most desirable consumer product, more so than owning a home in many countries.

“Increasingly the car will become more of a computer, more of a robot. I think of it as an intersection of two circles. We are absolutely open to partnering as the whole industry shifts to the future. For me it’s not a question of who wins. We want the consumer to win.”

Hmmm. Remember, she was the keynoter. I’d give a lot to know how these comments registered with the delegation from Stuttgart. You’ll note, no talk of enthusiasm. No wail of the banshee. No mention of lap times or driver involvement, other than to press buttons.

Then I came across the Top 10 Automotive Startups of 2016. These were selected by the event organizers from 130 applicants for an expectation they will “make significant contributions to the world’s transportation and mobility needs.” Here are a few.

Evercharge. Their goal is “to make electric vehicle ownership accessible for everyone - not just people who own their own homes…. The company’s focus is installing and managing smart EV charging systems in multiple unit buildings.”

Spacial.AI. A “geospatial API that provides users with the culture and flavor of urban areas, through big data analysis of social media.” The idea is to enable people to navigate an unfamiliar city like a local, “anywhere in the world.”

YourMechanic. This one’s my favorite. An “on-demand car repair service” offering more than 500 repair, maintenance and diagnostic services. These mechanics can travel to your office or, yes, they even make house calls…. Before scheduling an appointment, the customer can read ratings and reviews of the mechanic. The flat rate quote doesn’t change, even if the job takes longer than anticipated.

The organizers of Automobility LA are also promoting a Design and Developer Challenge. The theme? “Autonomous Vehicles: A Redefined User Experience for 2050.”

Teams competing must “collectively envision how technology, data, connectivity and content will power modern vehicle design and the in-vehicle experience.”

No, they don’t say who won. This insert was in advance of the convention. But I’m really curious. Maybe I’ll get an update insert from Automotive News in my e-mail. I hope so. Because, hey, 2050 is 34 years from now. That’s it. Think back 34 years to, yes, 1982. It wasn’t that long ago. What were YOU driving?

Hold that thought! Happy New Year to us all!

When the weather is cool and food is good and hot, our car club rocks! Thank you Mike and Maria for hosting eighty AZPCA members and having over forty reserved spots for our cars.

The renovations at The Thumb rock! They installed a 720 gallon salt water aquarium with a desert theme, focusing on the Tom’s Thumb Trailhead. The tank is a racetrack shape. The aquarium/tank serves as a two level bar, seating and eating area, where customers can “Dine With the Fish.” The massive tank stretches from the floor to the ceiling, matches current décor featuring vintage and all types of license plates from all over Arizona.
14 PORSCHE HOLIDAY GIFT IDEAS

by Paula (aka “Pepper Girl”) Editor-In-Chief at FLATSIXES.COM

Every year, around the holidays, we get email after email asking us for Porsche related gift ideas. Usually those emails are from a reader's spouse looking to surprise their loved one with a gift that would resonate with a Porsche fan. Sometimes the email is from the gift recipient themselves looking for a list to give someone else ideas. Either way, we’ve been putting together our list of recommended gift ideas for Porsche owners, fans and enthusiasts for years. Each year we curate a group of gift ideas that should hit on every level, for every budget. Take a minute to look through our list of Porsche gift ideas for 2016 and don't be at all embarrassed if you buy yourself something, we weren't!

1. FLATSIXES.COM "TURBOCHARGE YOUR MORNING" COFFEE MUG

What better way to start off your morning than with your favorite cup of coffee in a Porsche themed mug. Designed for FLATSIXES.com by our friend and contributor, Brett Sloan, the artwork on our new coffee mug features iconic parts from Porsches across multiple generations (Big Red Brakes, 930 Steering Wheel, Boost Gauge, Fan, Shift Knob, Turbo and a Fuchs Wheel). At 15 oz. in size, this ceramic mug is generous in proportion, fits well in your hand and is dishwasher and microwave safe. We're producing these on demand so please allow at least 5 to 7 business days for delivery. Cost is $19.95 per mug.

2. BLUEDRIVER BLUETOOTH PROFESSIONAL OBDII SCAN TOOL FOR IPHONE, IPAD, & ANDROID

We've had our share of OBDII scan tools over the years, but this is by far my favorite. This showed up in our mail a number of months ago unexpectedly. Not quite sure what to do with it, we tossed it in the Cayenne and kind of forgot about it. Then, on a long road-trip, in the middle of nowhere, the Cayenne started to act strangely. We were merging back onto the highway after a fuel stop and our "Pig" just wouldn't accelerate. That's when the dreaded check-engine light came on. We pulled over to the side and spent a few minutes just trying to figure out what to do. That's when I remembered we had the BlueDriver in the center console. I downloaded the app to my iPhone, plugged in the device to the OBDII port and in a matter of seconds had the trouble code, it's most common cause and a possible solution. Fortunately for us it was a simple fix and we were able to get back on the road after only a short stop. However, we would have never known it, and most likely ended up towing our Cayenne to a local garage for a costly repair and a long delay. Now, we keep a BlueDriver in each of our Porsches (and other cars) that are new enough to have an OBDII reader. It's just that handy to have. They are available on Amazon for $99.95.

3. CASUAL DRIVING SHOES BY HUNZIKER

The Casual Driving Shoes by Hunziker™ have made their long awaited return and are available now from FLATSIXES.com sponsor PelicanParts! New for this run are the Steve McQueen models: The “1969” which takes its styling cues from Steve McQueen's personal slate grey 1969 Porsche 911S. The "Mini" is fashioned after Steve McQueen's two-tone brown Mini Cooper. The "Sebring" is an homage to Steve McQueen's driving suit. All three models are Steve McQueen™ Official Licensed Merchandise. Hunziker™ also teamed up with Chad McQueen to create the "Track Day" McQueen Racing shoe. It features brushed black suede with subtle 3-D checkered flag leather inserts and is finished with McQueen Racing blue accents. Due to popular demand, the Gulf Racing "Heritage" model, the British Racing Green shoes and the iconic 917 Longtail in Martini Racing colors are making a comeback.

4. BATTERY TENDER PLUS

Whenever we publish our Porsche Winter Storage Guide, the Battery Tender Plus is a best-seller, and for good reason. Now it's a perennial favorite on our gift guide, too. At just $49.99 the Battery Tender Plus keeps your Porsche's battery fully charged during long-term periods of storage without the damaging effects caused by some other trickle chargers. The package includes a quick connect harness for hard to reach places (we use ours to come at the battery from underneath so we don't have to leave the front hood open). You can get yours on Amazon.com by following this link http://amzn.to/2ge1dbb

5. PORTABLE JUMPER PACK

Ok, so maybe you didn't listen and you never purchased the Battery Tender like we suggested. No problem. The DBPower Portable Car Jump Starter will get you back on the road in no time. Last year we had a different jump starter on the list. And while we still like it and use it, this new one is much more powerful (18000mAh and 600 amp peak current) and 20% less expensive (amazing what a year can do from a technology and pricing standpoint). What I like best about this unit, besides its very portable size, is the built-in LED light that can help you during a night-time breakdown by lighting up your work area or by warning oncoming traffic with its strobe feature. In addition to the LED you get two USB ports for charging phones or tablets when you're trying to save your Porsche's battery's juice, PLUS a gaggle of adapters to charge your laptop, a built in compass and an integrated LCD screen that shows remaining power. I'm of the opinion that everyone should have one of these in their trunk. After using the one we included on last year's gift guide in an emergency (our Boxster had an electrical gremlin that drained the battery while out to dinner) we now keep a portable jumper pack in each of our cars. At $79.99 it's pretty cheap insurance.

6. 6' LONG BRUSHED SILVER PORSCHE GARAGE SIGN

If you've been looking for that final piece to complete your garage, this 6' long brushed silver Porsche garage sign just might be the thing. According to the seller, the sign is cut from 1/8" thick Dibond (the same material used on the surface of Disney's Epcot Spaceship Earth. In other words, it's durable). Finished in brushed aluminum with a black side-wall you can simply use double sided tape to apply these to the wall or a more permanent construction adhesive if you know you won't be moving them. These can be purchased on Etsy.com for $59.99.

7. STONER CAR CARE KIT

I first became hooked on Stoner Car Care products through the use of their Invisible Glass cleaner. I originally started using it on the windshield of our boat, but after seeing how great it worked I quickly bought a can for the garage to use on our Porsches. What I didn't know then, but later found out, was that Stoner made all these other great products, too. We keep a can of "Terminator" in each car to quickly get rid of bugs, sap and other nasty road residue before it has a chance to ruin the paint (be sure to follow the directions) and the "Xenit Natural Citrus Cleaner & Remover" is the same product our clear bra installer recommended we use to keep its appearance in tip-top shape. The best part about buying the kit vs. buying each piece individually is the cost savings. You get huge value for the money and a number of extra products you're bound to find uses for. The kit is available on Amazon.com for $68.95.

8. AMAZON ECHO JUST KEEPS GETTING BETTER!

When Amazon Echo was first introduced we were a bit intrigued but hesitant. You see, we like to give new tech a bit of time to get the bugs out before jumping in. As it is, we enjoy home automation and I have a number of devices (various wi-fi cameras, Phillips Hue lighting, remote garage door openers, all things we've recommended on past versions of this post) that help us enjoy our home and our Porsches more. Now that Echo is a bit more seasoned I've decided to pull the trigger on getting one to remotely control all the various devices we've cobbled together. If things go as planned I'll be able to control my cameras (that watch our Porsches), my lighting (that lights the garage) and the garage door itself (all through the use of the Amazon Echo). With that in mind, and the fact that it seems many of us Porsche owners are like minded, I think Echo makes a great gift for the Porsche enthusiast on your list. It's available on Amazon.com for $174.99.

9. CUSTOM 10MM SOCKET RAIL FOR PORSCHE DIYERS FROM SONIC TOOLS

We first introduced you to SONIC Tools when we learned of their involvement as the official tools supplier to IMSA, CORE Autosport and CJ Wilson Racing. Then, last spring, they reached out to us and asked us to look through their catalog and see if we could think of anything that a Porsche DIYer might benefit from. Boy did we have an idea! If you've ever worked on your own Porsche you know that variations of the 10mm socket are some of the most used wrenches from your toolbox. Wouldn't it be great if someone put together a complete kit of 10mm sockets? SONIC took our advice, put together a customized rail and we tested it as part of Project Boxster Clubsport.

10. PORSCHE BIKE RX

Admittedly, this one is over the top, but for the right person it could be just perfect. With paintwork inspired by Porsche Motorsport and spec'd out for serious off-road usage (carbon frame, Magura hydraulic disc brakes, DT Swiss air suspension front fork, XT/XTR 22 gear component system, etc.) the Porsche Bike RX is a confident off-road bike for ambitious athletes. Available from Driver's Selection or your local Porsche dealer at $6,329.00.

11. GOPRO HERO SESSIONS

Chances are if you own a Porsche, you take pictures of it. Isn't it time you started taking video, too? Last year we suggested you get yourself a dashcam as liability protection. This year we think it's time you get something that's more leisure related. The GoPro HERO Sessions has an entry-level price but offers some fairly high-end features at a great price. If you want to take a shot at becoming the next automotive YouTube star, or just want to document your own drives, you can't go wrong with a GoPro camera. We've been using one for years to record our drives and we're yet to grow tired of it. The GoPro HERO Sessions starts at $174.99 on Amazon.com.

12. LEGO TECHNIC PORSCHE 911 GT3 RS

The LEGO TECHNIC Porsche 911 GT3 RS launched in the U.S. earlier this year. It was a hit from the start! Unfortunately, that meant sets were hard to come by and unless you pre-ordered, you had to pay a premium if you couldn't delay your gratification. Fortunately, some of that initial excitement has worn off, but the set is no less desirable. This isn't your little kid's LEGO set, after-all! Complete with 2,704 pieces, a working PDK transmission, forward and reverse gearing, special Technic wheels and tires this is bound to provide hours and hours of entertainment. Sets are available now on Amazon.com for $299.95.

13. PORSCHE 911 CORK COASTERS

According to the seller, these coasters are silk screen printed on natural cork by hand. They have a very colorful custom look and show four different classic Porsche 911 designs from several decades. Interestingly, the pictures in the reviews are better than the seller's, so be sure to look through those if you're unsure. At just $9.99, including free shipping, these would make great stocking stuffers and are easily the most affordable items on our list.

14. PORSCHE 911 SOUNDBAR

We want our list to have a little something for everyone and we know that the 911 Soundbar fits into a bigger budget spot. In fact, if you haven't done so yet, take a minute to checkout our review of the Porsche Design 911 Soundbar and you'll learn why we think it's worth the price of admission. Built from the actual components used in a GT3 the 911 Soundbar takes the normal function of a GT3 muffler and turns it upside down to resonate sound vs. constrain and control it. Delivering deep bass and a measurably louder audio experience, the 911 Soundbar pushes out your favorite track at 200 watts with no distortion. We thought it was amazing and if you're a Porsche fan and it's in your budget range, it will make an unforgettable gift. Available exclusively from Porsche Design for $3500.
ROUTE 66 BARN FIND ROAD TRIP
LOST COLLECTOR CARS ALONG THE MOTHER ROAD

by Tom Cotter

Route 66 Barn Find Road Trip lost collector cars along the Mother Road by Tom Cotter; photography by Michael Alan Ross, published October 15, 2016 by Motorbooks, Minneapolis, MN.

It is easy to think of Route 66 as a California highway because of the great open stretches that still exist in southern California, but it really was a national highway, running 2278 miles from Chicago, Illinois to Malibu, California. This book is a travel diary, appropriately dealing with the food along the way, as well as the road itself, and of course 'barn find' cars. Lead car and conversation starter for the trip was a '39 woody wagon.

Be advised that the title - Route 66 Barn Find - is somewhat misleading in that most of the old cars described were found in driveways, car ports, back yards, open fields, or otherwise exposed. Some were found as projects-in-work, but few if any were the hidden away, long abandoned vehicle which comes to mind as a 'barn find'. Indeed, many of the 'barns' in which the described 'finds' were located, were actually Salvage Yards.

There is no Porsche content in Route 66, but the trip does begin from the home of a Porsche ('63 Coupe) owner in Highland Park, Illinois, and the book does adhere to the PCA Mantra – 'It's not the cars it's the people' that make this book such a great read - almost half of the text is about the owners of the cars spotted from the Route 66 pavement.

Route 66 Barn Find is divided into eight sections, one for each of the states through which Route 66 passed, though only 13 miles were in Kansas.

Fast-paced and engrossing, the sections have a separate named 'chapter's' for each 'collection', collections as distinct from museums or even displays.

For example, in Moriarty, New Mexico, the author found some 700 cars out in a field – some with trees growing through them – none for sale!

The chapter headings and various parts of the book have interesting Route 66 oriented artwork like the graphics of the book's cover. Within each collection/chapter one or more cars and their restoration needs are described in detail. Some 'finds' were vehicles that had been extensively hotrodded but not driven in decades.

The emphasis of this book is clearly on Detroit iron, no doubt reflecting of the focus of the collectors rather than that of the author, but Datsuns, MGs and SAABs are reported on. While most of the collectors are not interested in selling cars from their collections, a few do sort of run businesses in old parts, but do so without showrooms, advertising or websites. It seems that their marketing techniques are as old as their cars!

Route 66 Barn Find is hardbound, with 192 heavyweight glossy 9-1/4 x 10-3/4 pages, the text and 402 color photos are sharp and clear. There is a comprehensive, two-page, three-column index, and a one page listing of the 'best of': food, places, people, and cars encountered on the trip. By the time you read this it should be available for $35.00 from your favorite bookseller (ask for it), or from https://www.quartoknows.com

Phoenix Flight 39 – October 28-29
Grayhawk Golf Club, North Scottsdale
Thank you Cliff Berryman and Jack Aman for putting on a great event! Disabled American Veterans Department of Arizona received over $3,500 from a 50/50 raffle and silent auction.
Thank you to all volunteers who helped make Flight 39 a great experience for everyone.

Volunteers:
Volunteers are what make this club great. Without YOU volunteering, we would not be able to have the quality events we currently enjoy.
“Great Events depend on Volunteers”

Our next Monthly Meeting will be held on December 7th at Lucille’s Smokehouse BBQ in Tempe. Make sure that you RSVP!

Respectfully submitted,

Jan Nyquist, AZPCA Secretary
SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

The sponsorship programs were designed to allow our current and new advertisers and sponsors a simple way to choose a program that will include internet exposure, print ads, and sponsorship opportunities all for one simple investment.

The sponsorship program has six tiers:

Starter - $250 Includes one small website banner on the Events and the Going Places digital magazine page of our website, rotating with other sponsors, and one black & white business card ad in the Going Places publication.

Bronze - $500 Includes one medium-sized website banner on the Events and Going Places digital magazine page of our website, rotating with other sponsors, and one quarter-page black & white ad in the Going Places publication.

Silver - $1000 Includes one medium-sized website ad on the main page of our website rotating with other sponsors, and one half-page black & white ad in the Going Places publication.

Gold – $2000 Includes one large vertical ad on the front page of our website rotating with other sponsors and one full-page black & white ad in the Going Places publication.

Platinum - $5000 Includes one large static front-page ad on our website, one full-color half-page ad in our Going Places publication, and other promotional and sponsorship benefits.

Diamond - $10,000 Includes one large static ad on the front page of the website, an embedded video, one full-color, full-page inside cover ad in our Going Places publication, prime sponsor position with banner for Flight, and other promotional benefits and speaking opportunities.

It is the responsibility for each sponsor to develop and design their unique promotional ads. Sponsors must submit their own artwork electronically for ads in gif, pdf, jpeg or swf (for website ads) formats. New sponsorships will run yearly, and investment will be pro-rated for any new sponsor who commits mid-year. All website ads will be viewed only by Arizona Porsche Club members and therefore will not be accessed until the member logs into the website. The acceptance and display of advertising in this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the advertiser or product by the Porsche Club of America, Arizona Region. AZPCA reserves the right to refuse to print any ad it deems inappropriate. Sponsorships must be prepaid. Staff reserves the right to change rates upon notice at any time.
